Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival at Kathmandu & Transfer to Hotel.

Upon arrival at Kathmandu Airport, you shall be picked up in your exclusive vehicle & transferred to your hotel. Later, Kathmandu is a fascinating blend of traditional architecture and symbols of the 20th Century. Its rich artistic and cultural heritage is evident where ornately carved balconies mingle with beautiful shrines and temples. Visit Pashupatinath Temple & Boudhanath. The UNESCO World Heritage Site: The Pashupatinath Temple, is one of the most significant Hindu Temples of Lord Shiva in the world. The richly ornamented pagoda houses the sacred linga, or phallic symbols of Lord Shiva. It stands as a symbol of unity bringing together the different sects of Hinduism under a single fold. It is situated on the bank of the sacred Baghmati River.

Please Note: Non-Hindus are not permitted to enter, but can view the temple from a special vantage point. Devotees can be seen taking ritual dips in the holy Baghmati River, a sacred place of cremation and where thousands of pilgrims from all over the world come to pay their respects. Later, visit Boudhnath, one of the largest stupas of its kind in the world. It stands with four pairs of eyes in the four cardinal directions, keeping watch for righteous behaviour and human prosperity. It is built on an octagonal base inset with prayer wheels. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Meals: Dinner

Day 2: Early Morning Mountain Flight (Cost Included). Later, Fly to Pokhara (Kathmandu to Pokhara Flight included).

Very early this morning enjoy the Mountain Flight over Everest. This is one of the best ways to observe the snow-capped peaks of the Himalayan Mountainous Range. The flight is operated between the time periods of 6.30:00 AM to 9.30:00 AM.

Later, post breakfast, you shall immediately fly again to Pokhara. (Flight Cost to Pokhara included). Pokhara is a remarkable place of natural beauty with stunning panoramic views of the Himalayan peaks. Situated at an altitude of 900m, the town is known as a center of adventure as it is the base point for many treks. The serenity of lakes creates a peaceful ambience. Overnight in Pokhara.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 3: Pokhara Sightseeing

Early in the morning drive to Sarangkot for sunrise tour. Sarangkot is the one of the best place in Nepal where you can see sunrise and panoramic mountain views. After sunrise tour drive back to hotel and have breakfast, then proceed to Pokhara City Sightseeing.

Bindabashini Temple: Bindabashini is also one of the most popular temple in Pokhara. The temple is dedicated to goddess Bhagwati, another manifestation of Shakti. Bindabashini is the mother goddess who fulfills the wishes of her devotees.

Barahi Temple: The Barahi temple is the most important monument in Pokhara. Built almost in the center of Phewa Lake, this two-storied pagoda is dedicated to the boar manifestation of Ajima, the protectors deity representing- the female force Shakti. Devotees can be seen, especially on Saturdays, carrying male animals and fowl across the lake to be sacrificed to the deity.

Devi's Fall: Locally known as the Patale Chhango (Hell's Fall). Devi's Fall (also known as Devin's and David's) is a lovely waterfall lying about two km south-west of the Pokhara airport on the Siddhartha Highway. Legend has it that a trekker (Devin, David.) was washed away by the Pardi Khola and mysteriously disappeared down into an underground passage beneath the fall. Gupteswar Cave: Another cave famous for its religious importance located in the southern end of the city, Chorepatan. This cave is a sacred and natural cave; there is temple of Lord Shiva. In evening leisure, overnight stay at Hotel.

Fewa Lake: 1 hrs. boating on Fewa Lake.

Seti Gorge: Another of Pokhara's natural wonders that unfailingly interests visitors is the Seti Gandaki River. Flowing right through the city, the boisterous river runs completely underground at places. Amazingly, at certain points the river appears hardly two meters wide. But its depth is quite beyond imagination over 20 meters! Provides a perfect view of the river's dreadful rush and the deep gorge made by its powerful flow.

International Mountain Museum: More than seventy thousand domestic and international tourists visit International Mountain Museum (IMM) every year. IMM records, documents and exhibits the past and present developments related to mountain and mountaineering around the world.[2] The museum contains three main exhibition halls: Hall of Great Himalayas, Hall of Fame and Hall of World Mountains. Inside the museum there are exhibits on famous peaks, descriptions of famous mountaineers, the culture and lifestyle of mountain people, flora and fauna including geology, in an attempt to represent the traditional culture and values of the Nepalese people. Overnight in Pokhara.

Day 4: Pokhara to Kathmandu (Flight Included). Later, Chandragiri Cable Car (Cost Included) & Swayambhunath Stupa.

After breakfast, transfers to Pokhara Airport for your flight to Kathmandu. On arrival be picked up in your exclusive vehicle and transferred to your hotel. Later, enjoy a Cable Car Ride to Chandragiri. Chandragiri Cable Car is a gondola lift transportation system located in Chandragiri Municipality, Nepal. Opened on 2016, the Chandragiri Cable Car runs from Thankot to Chandragiri Hills. The 2.4 km line has two Stations. The cable car system consists of 38 gondolas that can carry 1,000 people per hour. From Chandragiri you can see all the Kathmandu City and Mountains. Later, visit Swayambhunath - 'The Monkey Temple'. Swayambhunath is a 2000 year old world famous Buddhist Stupa and UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its lofty white dome and glittering golden spire are visible for many miles from all sides of the valley. Painted on the four-sided base of the spire are the all-seeing eyes of Lord Buddha. Above each pair of eyes is the 'third eye' signifying the wisdom of looking within. Overnight in Kathmandu.

Meals: Breakfast & Dinner

Day 5: Departure to Kathmandu Airport.

Today, after a delicious breakfast, you will be transferred to 'Kathmandu International Airport' for your Onward Journey Home with great memories from Horizon Holidays.

Happy Memories

Later,

Bhaktapur Durbar Square: The Bhaktapur Durbar Square is the most elegant with its open space facing south. The Golden Gate and the Palace of 55 Carved Windows have added beauty to this palace square which consists of buildings dating from the 13th century to the 18th century. Bhaktapur's landmark is the world famous Nyatapola, or five-storeyed temple, built in 1702 at Taumadhi Square. Bhaktapur is a living museum of arts and architecture. Every piece of art speaks this city's history. The monuments and sculptures reflect centuries-old craftsmanship. The city has suffered from earthquakes in the year 1808, 1833 and 1934. These earthquakes caused extensive damage in ancient buildings. Despite the destruction, the external appearance of the city does not seem to have changed. Temples and monuments have been rebuilt and preserved.

Nagarkot: Situated at 2175 meters above sea level on the valley's eastern rim offers an excellent view of the Himalayas including Everest, Lhotse, Cho Oyu, Makalu and Manaslu mountains. It also has sweeping panoramic view of the terraced hillsides typical field. It is a popular place for sunrise and sunset viewing. After seeing the sunrise and views you will return to Kathmandu via Bhaktapur where you will visit Bhaktapur Durbar Square. Overnight in Nagarkot.
